ALCEN '65

The Class of 1965 is the twenty-fifth class to graduate from Alfred-Almond. Although we decided not to tie this year's book to a particular theme, we feel that it is fitting to denote the school's growth and expansion in the past quarter of a century. The owls above the main doorway have been a familiar sign to many of us since kindergarten; but last year strange plans were being made behind their backs, and now the children disappear into a bright new building.

As the number of students grows, and the school building itself grows, so should the breadth of learning in school be expanded. This is up to the school and the students; the next twenty-five years are yours.

If you do as well in June
as you have all year
I will be very proud of you
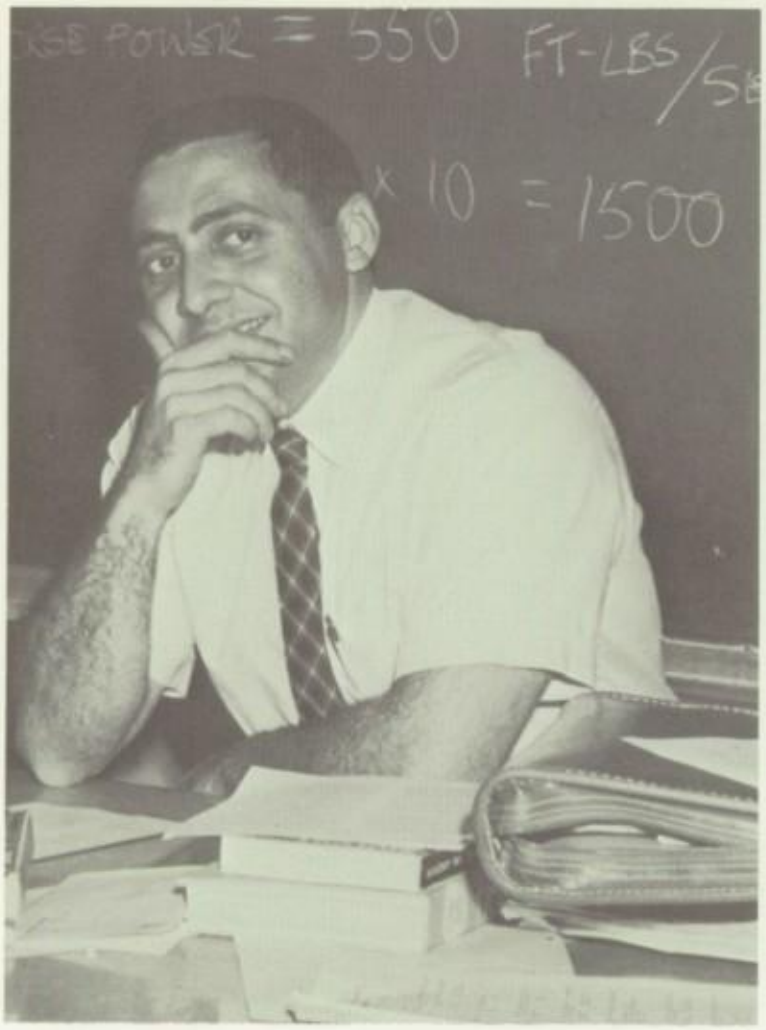
Dad Thomas

WE DEDICATE



"When you kids do badly in my course, I worry about you. I don't know why, but I do."

Who else gave us as much?

For scowling
For laughing
For shouting
For making it live
And especially for caring,

Thank you, Mr. Gerace.

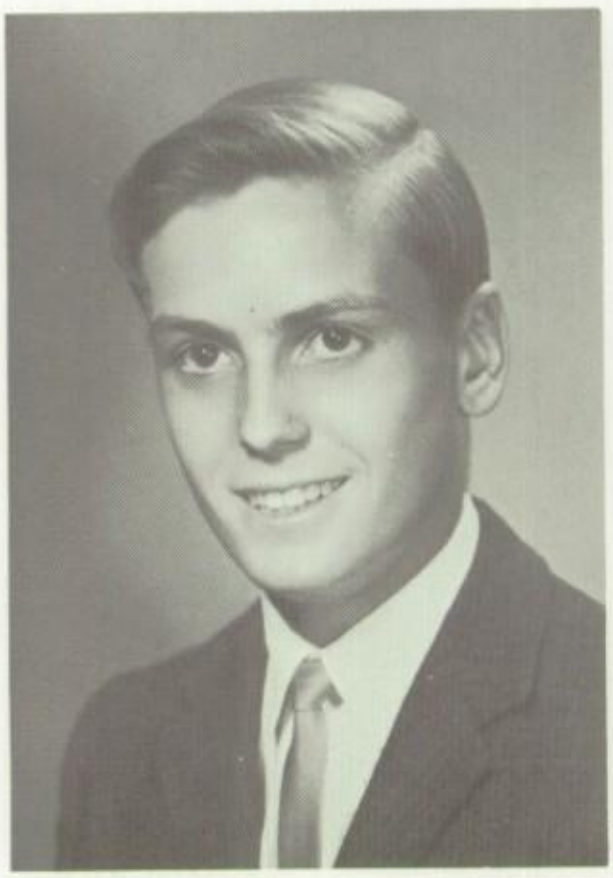
JOYCE AUSTIN

Joyce is a real sports enthusiast, actively participating in girls' soccer and basketball; and she especially enjoys horseback riding. Added to her activities in F.H.A. and service on the athletic council, these interests make her our first choice for the All-American girl.

J. Bordeaux, Secretary;
D. Davis, Treasurer;
E. Phelan, President;
G. Smith, V. President.



DALE BAKER

Dale's contributed his talent in sports to basketball and soccer and his dramatic ability to our junior and senior high plays. He is known thoughout the class for his quick sense of humor, balanced by a courteous manner.

LORRAINE BAKER

Lorraine enjoys art and business courses and has been for a long time a hard-working member of the Red Cross. She is serious about her schoolwork and always willing to help out a classmate.

JANE BORDEAUX

Jane has done more than her share for the school as a talented art student, an Alcen assistant, and a member of the Drama Club. Her demure manner belies the fact that she is a hard worker with plenty of drive.

MARGARET BENNETT

Maggie is a wonderful person. Her candid remarks and dry sense of humor mark her as a real individualist. She has a great deal of talent in art and enjoys horses and teasing Mr. Phelan.

CECIL BRIGGS

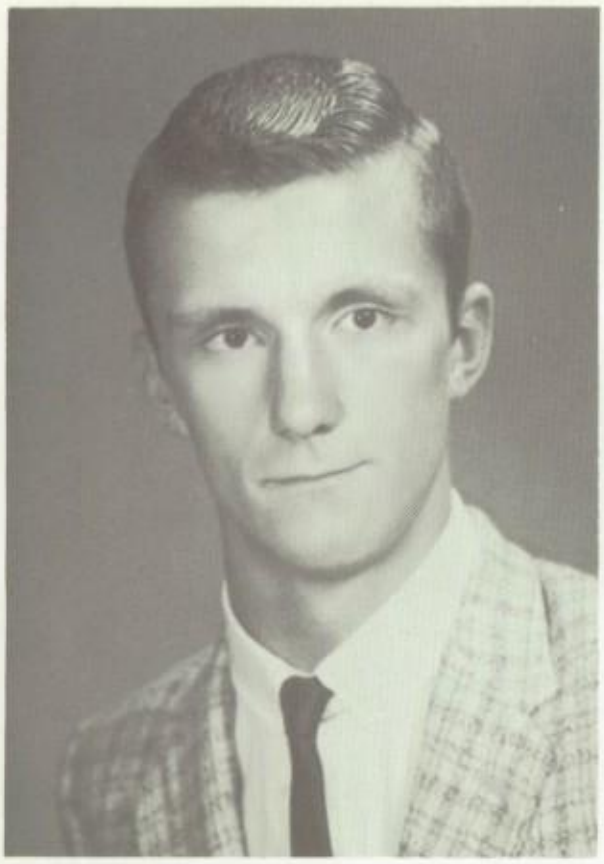
Almost all of Cecil's spare time is occupied with various out-of-school jobs. In fact, we predict that he will be able to retire before he's twenty. Whatever he does, his honest and serious nature will help him to succeed.

DIANE BROWN

We will remember Diane for her varied talent; as an actress in all of our dramatic productions, as literary editor of the Alcen and especially for her interest in folk music and guitar. But more than these, for her open-minded frankness and authentic desire to find the truth, which have added an outstanding personality to our class.

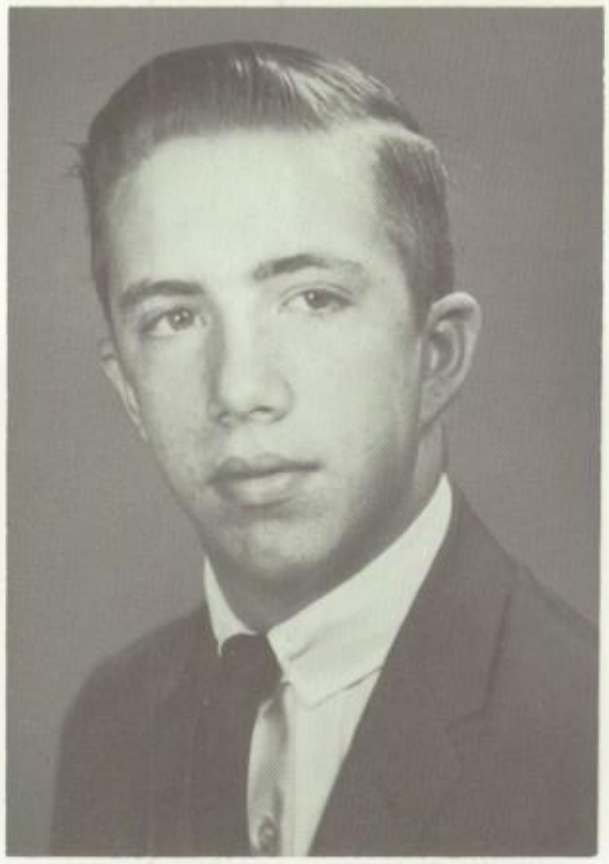
RITA BROWNELL

Rita is the "blonde that has more fun." She has served as a spirited cheerleader and an oboe player in the band, and was one of the first girls in our class to get her driving license. Although she has been a constant plague to Mr. Gerace and vice versa, we know they both really enjoy it.



JAMES BUCKMASTER

Jim has a modest and quiet manner which doesn't hide the fact that he has added much to our cross-country and track teams. He has also served on the Athletic Council, bravely selling those inevitable pencils and combs.



ARTHUR BURDICK

Art claims that his favorite subjects are math, science and lunch; needless to say, his interests are diversified. In Arsenic and Old Lace he portrayed a roaring Teddy Roosevelt which would even have satisfied Mr. Torrey.

ELIZABETH CLANCY

Betty has been an efficient helper to Mrs. Stillman in the library, and is also one of the school's few lady projectionists. She always seems to be busy with something, and it is certain that this industrious nature will continue to help her in coming years.

ELIZABETH CLARE

Beth's serious attitude about her schoolwork is supplemented by an active extracurricular schedule. On top of this, she actually manages to work in a dairy bar without gaining weight! Her good-humored outlook makes her a warm and sympathetic friend.

JANE CLICQUENNOI

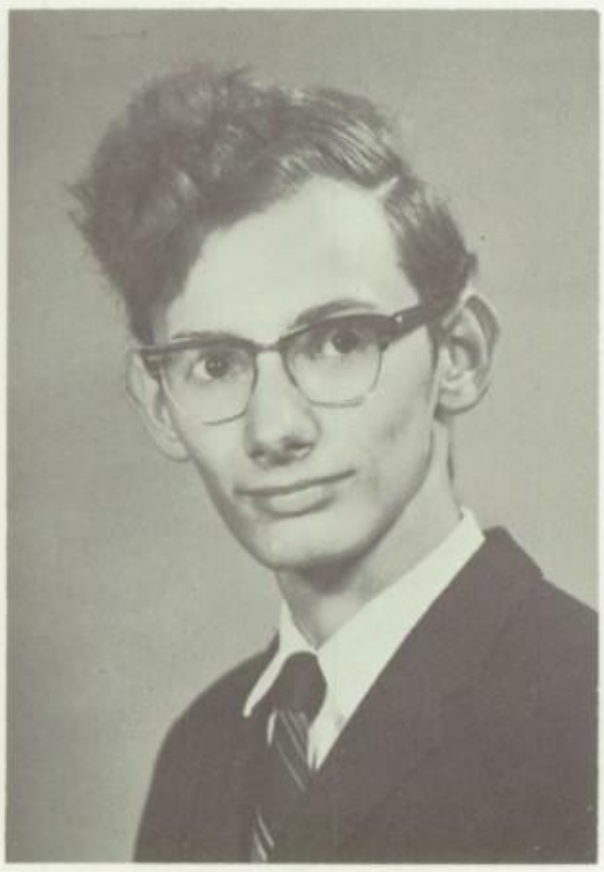
Jane practically went crazy this year as the Alcen's editor, but without her conscientiousness and hard work the book would never have made it. ("Do you realize you have exactly twelve days to finish those write-ups?") The combination of her sense of humor and qualities of leadership is hard to duplicate.

JOAN DAVIS

Joan never seems to stand still; she has channeled her boundless energies into cheerleading and majorettes all through high school. With a wicked gleam in her eye and a flashing smile, she's been breaking hearts since she wore a ponytail in the fifth grade.

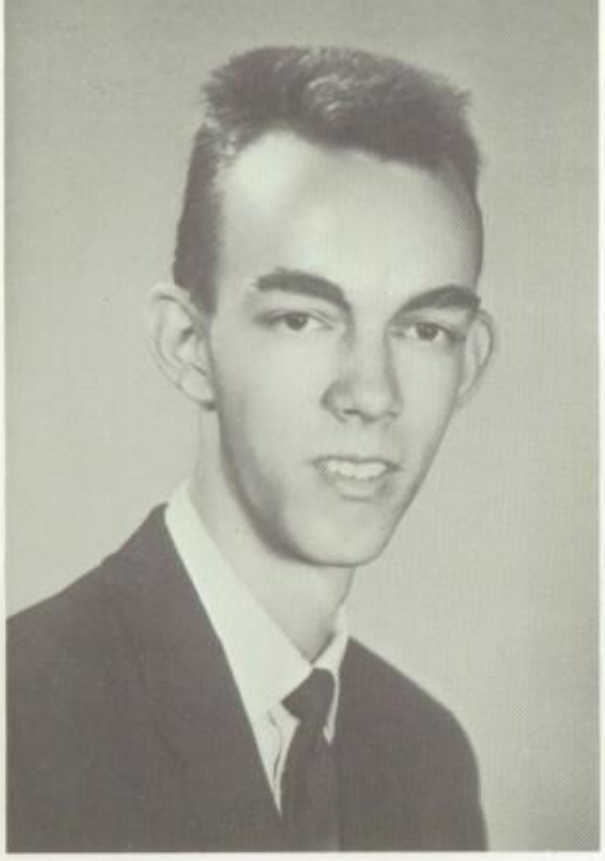
DENNIS CROSTON

Dennis is one of those intellectuals in the class who actually enjoys math and science courses. He is also one of the few courageous males to join the Future Nurses' Club and has probably been seen giving moral support to his trembling comrades when the time for shots comes around.



DONNA DAVIS

One of the Alfred Station gang, Donna is a go-getter with plenty of spirit. She has excelled in math, with hopes of teaching it someday, and is an Honor Society member. We hear that she especially enjoys her summers of water skiing, etc., at Loon Lake.



MICHAEL DECKER

Mike's favorite subjects are history and science. His out-of-school interests include cars and playing pool (when not working at his father's gas station). He will be long remembered for his characteristic dry laugh and sleek white convertible.

JOHN EMO

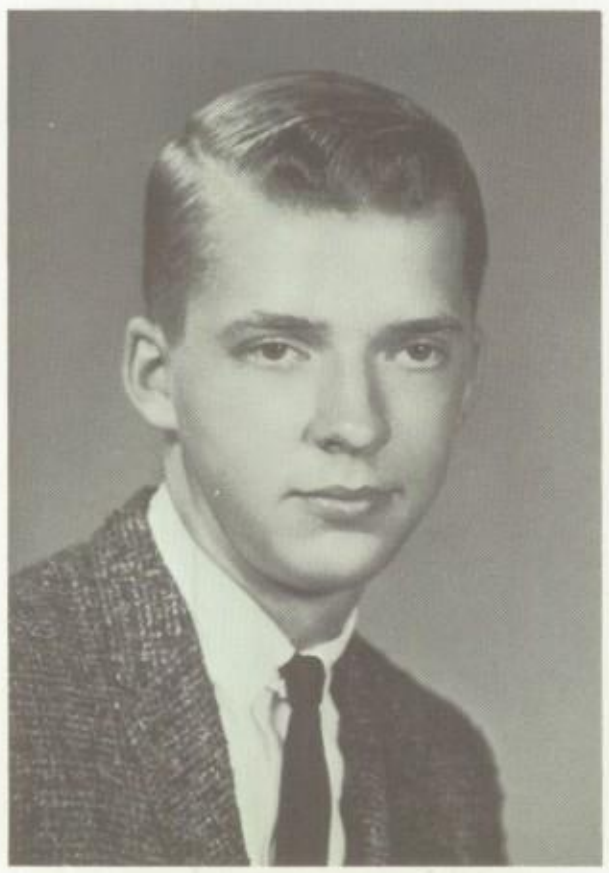
A longtime member of F.F.A., Jack is also another of our class's numerous car bugs. He has flexed his muscles obligingly for A.A.'s grapplers all through high school, and is famous for his freckles and cheerful disposition.

CHRISTOPHER FRECHETTE

Chris might be called a strong, silent type, but he has a rare sense of humor and a twinkle in his eye which has probably set many a girlish heart a-flutter. He is an invaluable soccer player and has also shone on the track team and in the band.

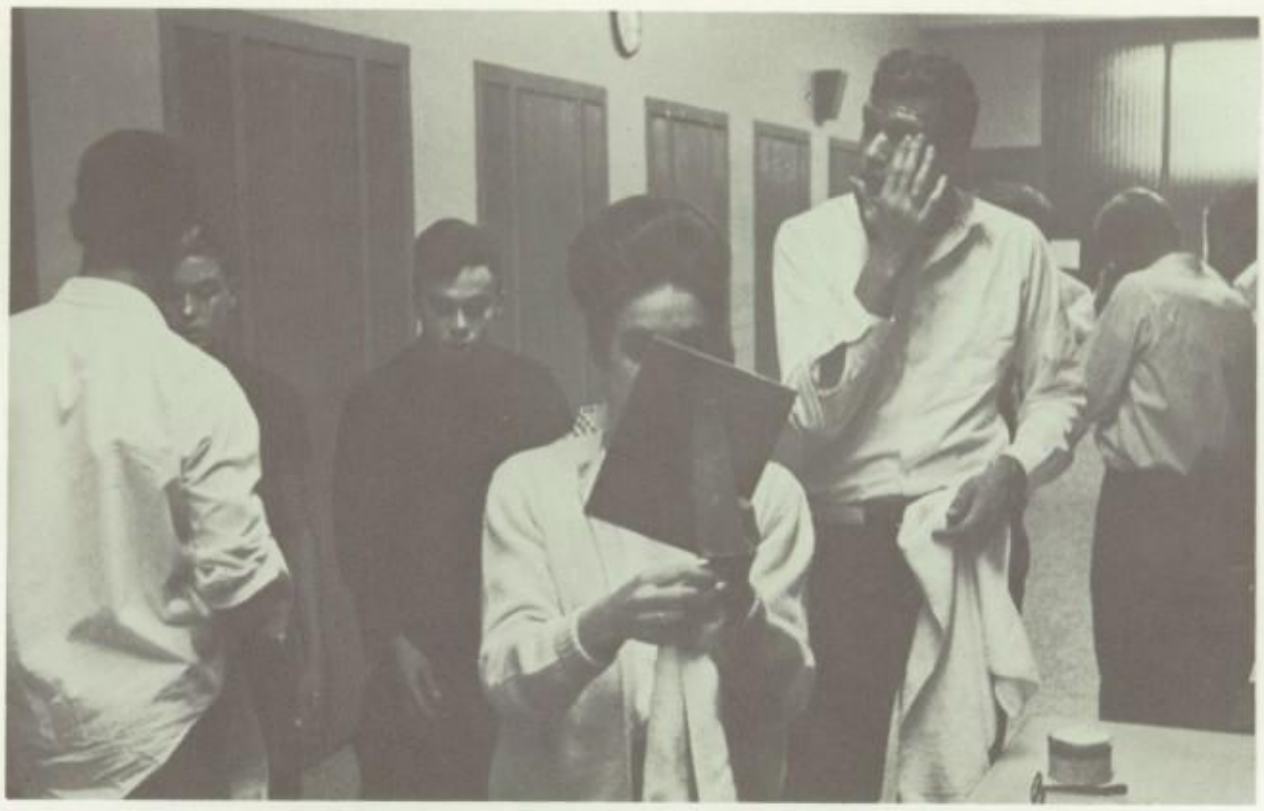
SALLY EDDY

Sally enjoys Future Nurses and 4-H Club, and sold a huge amount of magazines in her junior and senior years. Beneath her quietness is a fun-loving and intelligent personality.



GENE GIFFORD

Gene enjoys history, physics, chemistry, water fights in chemistry and hiding poor Mr. Parker's chalk in chemistry. ("Mr. Parker, would I do that to you?") He has served as a fire warden and has certainly been helpful in every fire we've had at A. A.



BARBARA GOODWIN

Barb has been in cohorts with Cindy since they changed "from bobby-sox to stockings." She has been active in F.N.A. and has held up the business end of our class, particularly on the Alcen. Barb can be counted on to keep her sense of humor on any occasion.

PETA GRAY

Peta's beautiful long hair and proud bearing suggest something of the true aristocrat. She hopes to study dancing in college and is also an accomplished actress, as was shown by her portrayal of a "delightful old murderess" in the senior play.

ROY GREENSPAN

Roy came to us from Long Island last year and we've never since been the same. His offbeat sense of humor and easy friendliness are guaranteed to get him out of even the worst scrapes; but if these should fail, he has only to wink his eye at Lady Luck (or any other girl).

CANDICE HENRY

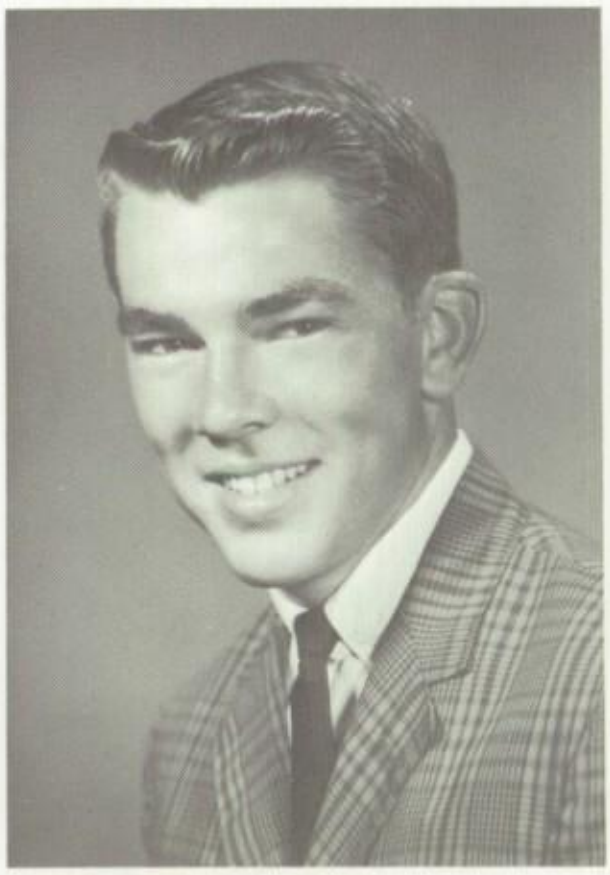
Candy's good looks and sunny personality plus her ability in homemaking are sure to make someone very happy some day. She is active in all sports, and especially likes skiing and archery.

SALLY JOHANSSON

Sally is an accomplished musician having taken piano for a long time and, more recently, voice lessons. She will especially be remembered for her wacky and needless diets. ("Well, I had ice cream for breakfast, but I'm not having any lunch!")

SHARON KELLY

Among other things, Sharon has served as vice-president of the Future Teachers' Association and has been in the school's band and chorus. She loves animals, and it is rumored that she has dozens of kittens at home. A bouncy optimist, Sharon seems to enjoy everything she does.



JOHN KENYON

John has been a hard-working member of the senior class; he helped to make our fair booth a success and sold magazines like mad. He has also been invaluable as manager of the basketball team and will be remembered for his avid interest in math.

PATRICIA LINDEMAN

Patty's giggle is too much to believe. However, she has managed to control her zany sense of humor long enough to enjoy math class, be an Alcen assistant, and chew gum in chorus. Between them, she and Joan have managed to make gym a horror for Mrs. McEvoy.

CHRIS KULL

A real outdoorsman, Chris looks forward to the hunting and fishing seasons. His favorite subject is history and, like other local historians, he has been known to take some days off "to hunt." His maturity and good sense have helped him to make many friends.

CLYDE LEWIS

Clyde has been a star on A.A.'s soccer team throughout high school, and has also participated in basketball and track. Always dependable and likeable, he has been an asset to our class and the school.

CHRISTINE LOBDELL

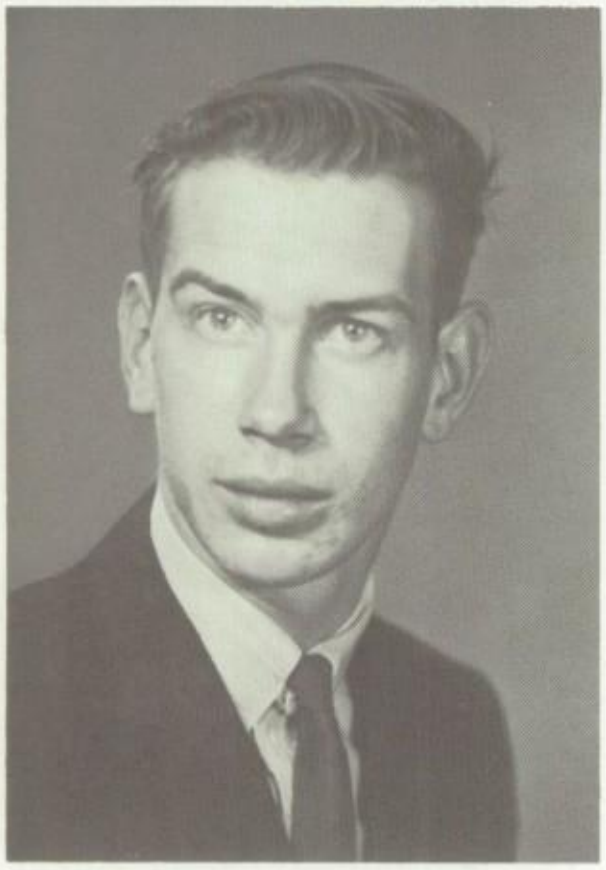
A calm individualism marks Christine's personality. Also, although she refuses to believe it, she is perhaps the class's best student; not necessarily for her good grades, but because of her attitude toward learning. A sympathetic and sincere listener, she will always know more of other people's problems than she will have problems of her own.

PHILIP LOCKWOOD

Famous for his fantastic marks in history, Phil is a conscientious student who still finds time to participate in many outside activities. He enjoys basketball and also has been a member of the cross-country team.

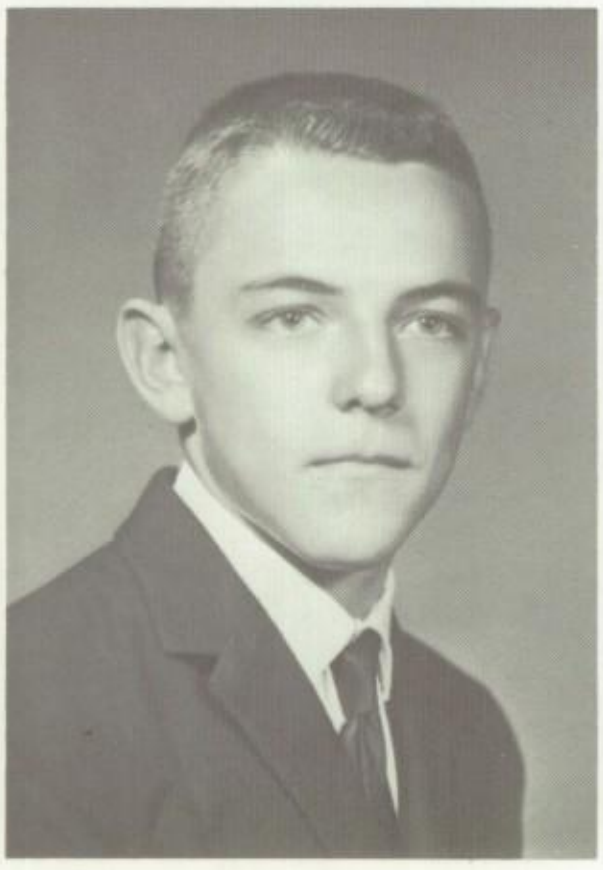
GARY MEARS

Gary, an all-around sports enthusiast, especially enjoys tennis and baseball. He also graces several of Mrs. Seaman's business classes (a combination of interests which leads us to believe he'll be one of those rich businessmen addicted to Sunday golfing.)



KENNETH MARVEL

Kenny joins the ranks of the car fanatics. He talks about stock car racing, but his interests also include mechanical drawing, Ag mechanics, and charming Mrs. VanHall. A sociable fellow, he has often been seen skimming around at skating-parties.



JAMES MULLEN

Jim enjoys hunting and trapping with the Almond boys, and his favorite class is industrial arts. He has been an asset to our soccer and track teams since the ninth grade, and he is famous for having been able to highjump an inch over his head.

LINDA MULLEN

As a faithful member of the Future Nurses' Club, Linda pounds the boards at Bethesda. We're sure her perky smile brightens things at the hospital as much as it does at basketball games, where she is often very much in evidence.

JANICE MULLIKIN

Janice's serene manner is not quite capable of repressing that kooky laugh of hers. Despite this, she contributes her efforts to such sober institutions as the Future Nurses' Club, and has tootled a mean clarinet for Mr. Sprague.

CAROLYN NEVINS

The days when Carolyn was a tomboy always falling out of a tree are hardly mirrored in this tranquil girl who likes to read poetry and play the flute. However, she has retained a wacky and delightful sense of humor which pops out at every unexpected moment.

EMANUEL NINOS

Mickey is a generous person, always pleasant and willing to help. He lives in the huge metropolis of Thacherville, where he is famous for a beautiful swimming pool which he hides in his back yard.

BARTHOLOMEW NEVILLE

An enthusiastic and invaluable baseball player, Bart has also lent his athletic talents to the soccer team. In the classroom his interests in math and science give rise to endless questions, and his avid curiosity makes him a pleasure to teach.

CHERYL OLIN

Cheryl's artistic talent has been well developed at Alfred-Almond. Not only has she studied mechanical drawing; she even forced Mr. Phelan to create a new art course for her. Cheryl has been a hardworking member of F.T.A. and Drama Club.

CYNTHIA ORDWAY

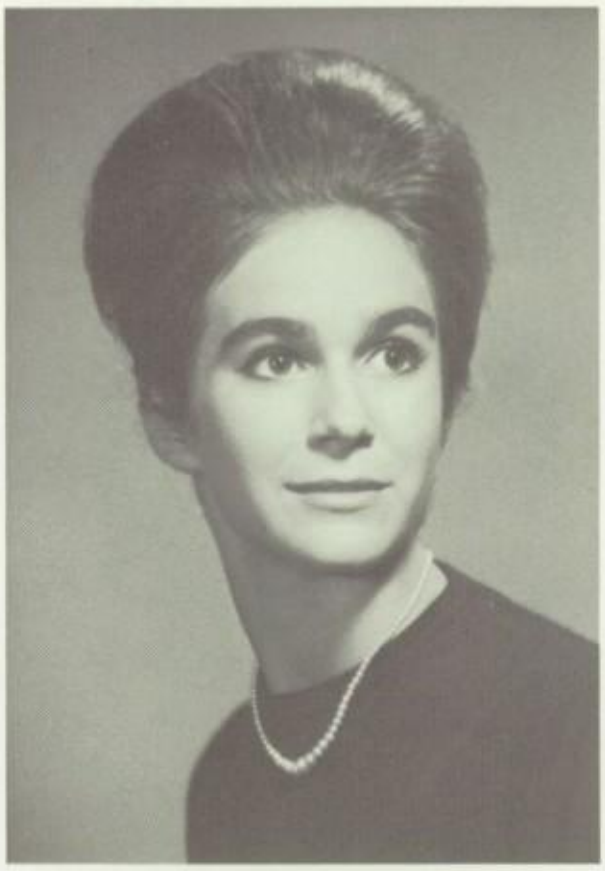
Cindy has been a capable Future Nurse all through high school, and served as vice-president of this vast and complex organization last year. She also headed the Alcen's advertising committee, and her drive and good salesmanship won over many a reluctant sponsor.

ALLEN ORMSBY

Allen's interests center around sports, and his natural ability in this field has made him outstanding at Alfred-Almond on the baseball and basketball teams. He is especially well-liked for his casual friendliness and easy-going but sensible nature.

MARY KAY ORMSBY

Mary Kay's steady dependability and animation make her a valued member of the Future Nurses. She even managed to survive the dreadful initiation ceremonies inflicted on all aspirants to F.H.A. and is now safely ensconced as a senior member.



ELIZABETH PHELAN

Betsy's almond eyes and stately carriage make her an outstandingly attractive person; and these qualities are matched by the natural charm of her personality. She has been a soaring addition to the cheerleading squad, and shows much talent as the Alcen's art editor.

STEPHEN PATTON

Steve's favorite class is Ag. mechanics and with Mr. Linderman's help he will probably become a deft mechanic of agriculture, whatever that is. He likes to play basketball and baseball, and his pep and drive are a help to him in all sports.

PETER RANDOLPH

Pete's lazy smile and spontaneous good humor have made him one of our most popular boys. His main interest scholastically is math, and his spectacular accomplishments on the basketball court are admired by everyone.

MICHAEL PLANK

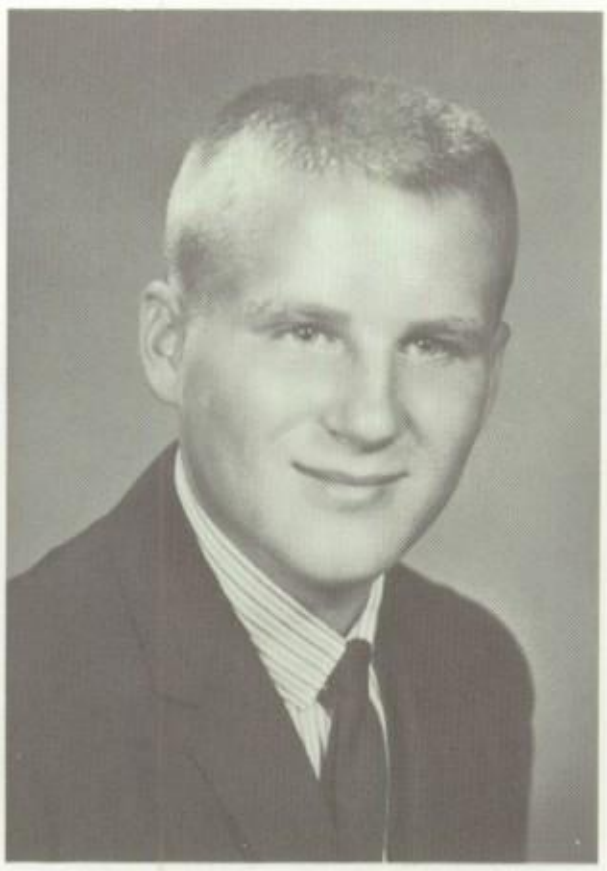
Hornell hasn't been quite so "swell" since Mike left it last year to come to Alfred-Almond, but it was a welcome change for us. Mike's two main interests are cars and girls, probably in that order.

DAVID RYAN

As president of the Student Council, Dave's "Attention, please!" wakes us every morning. A good willed fellow, he has also served as class president, and is probably the only left-handed basketball player ever to gain points for the Golden Eagles.

WILLIAM SEPHTON

Bill is one of the intelligentsia who belong to a little world unfathomable to the rest of us -- the Radio Club. When not spouting jargon about woofers and tweeters, he has managed to be a valuable member of the track team.

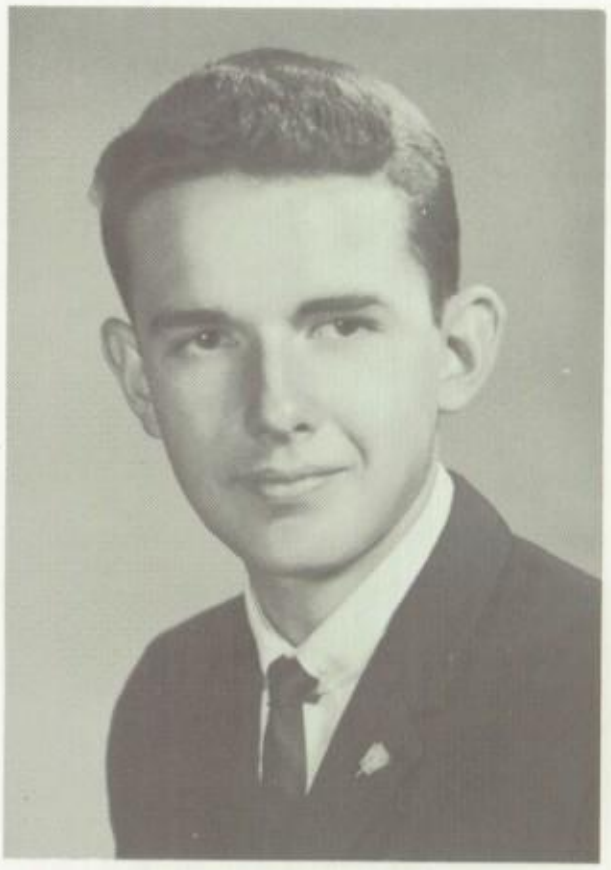


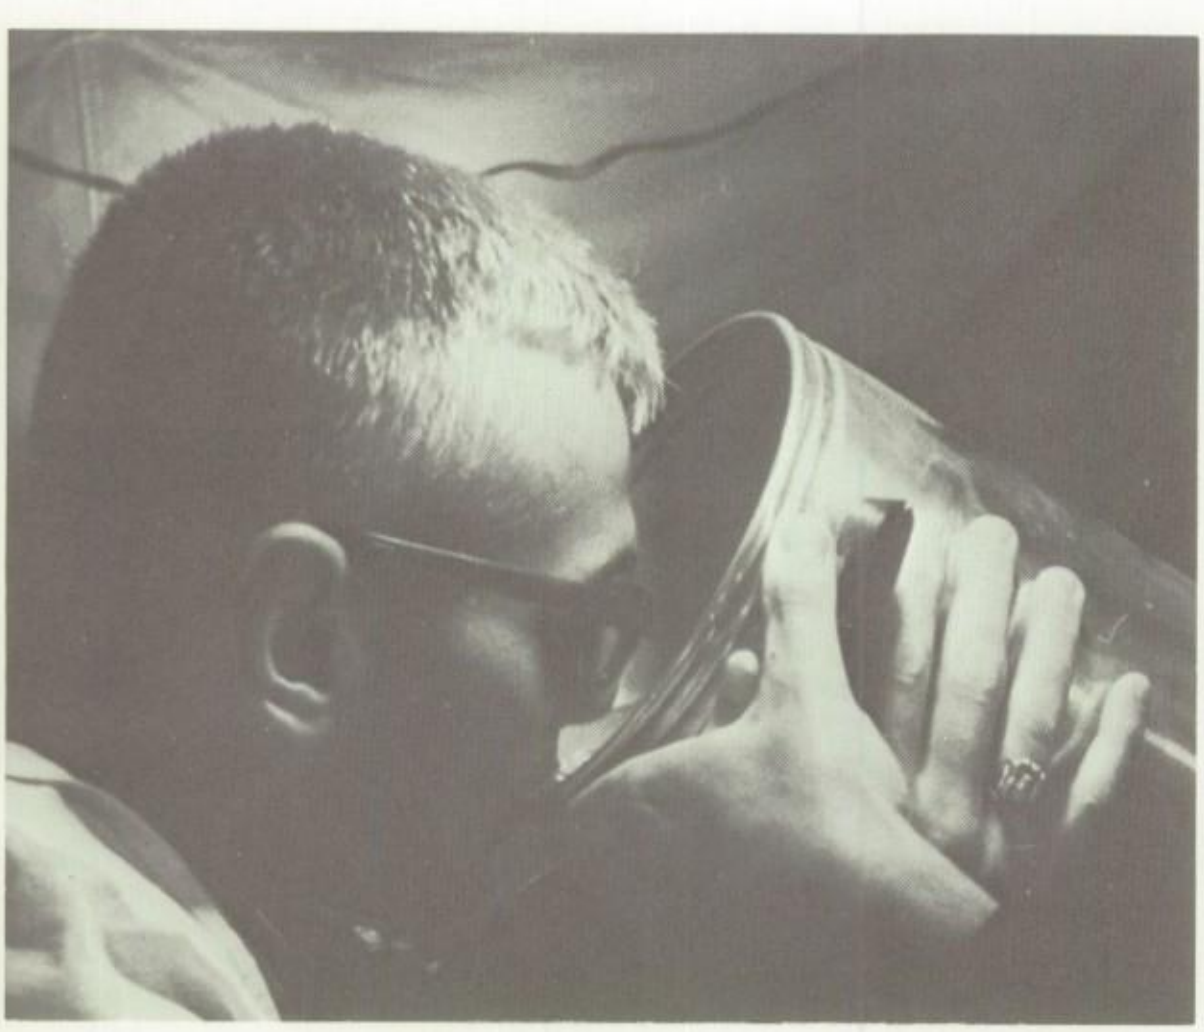
JOHN SHARRETT

John will often be remembered as a sturdy blond figure streaking down the soccer field in one of those lovely striped shirts. He has presented conservation studies in the 4-H Club and is a member of F.F.A.

GREGORY SMITH

Greg may seem to be more the studious type than an actor, but he blossomed out as a perfectly oily Einstein in our senior play. He is an amazing mathematician, and studied math at Brown University last summer (a glutton for punishment, this boy). An extremely dependable person, Greg is well-liked for his openminded honesty.





ANDREW STEVENS

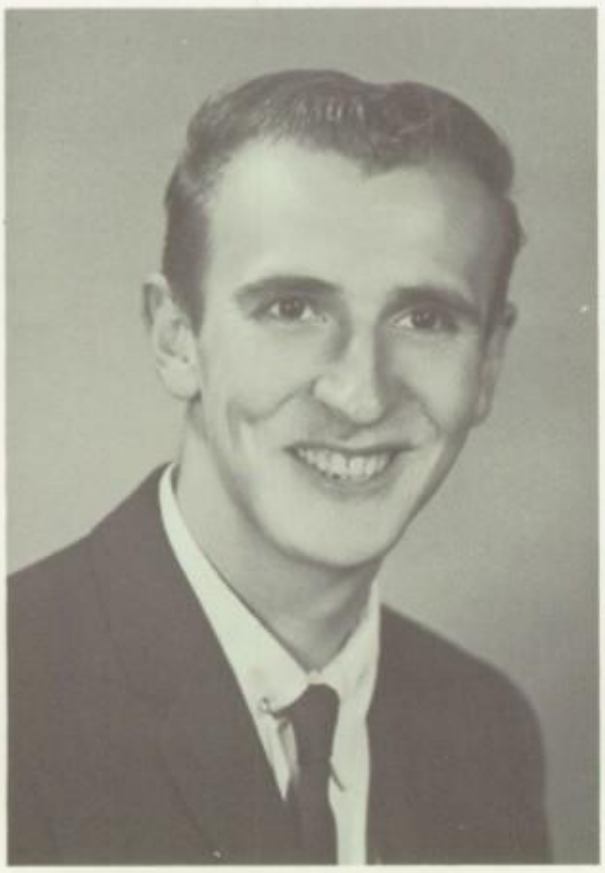
The last of the three Stevenses to graduate from Alfred-Almond, Andy brought up the rear with honor. His earnest singing (on key, even!) has been a delight to Mrs. Pulos and the chorus for several years.

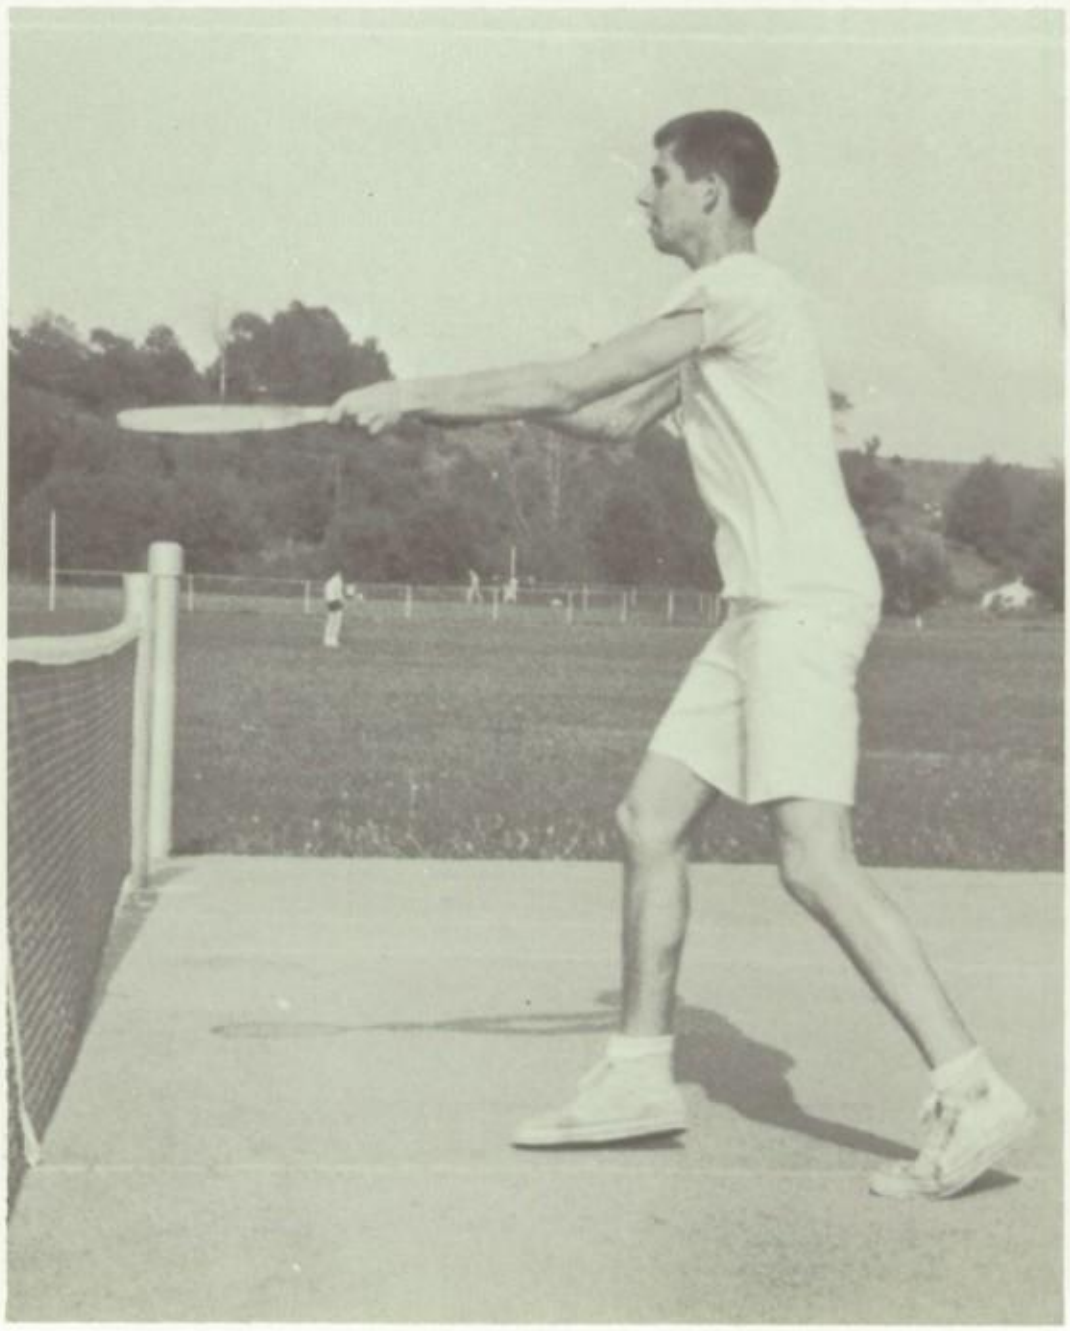
ROGER THOMAS

Roger and cars are practically synonymous. He draws them excellently, talks about them knowingly, and drives them (finally!). With all that axle grease its amazing how he stays so polished and debonair! A quick-witted fellow, he can often be found playing pool or bowling.

RONALD TUCKER

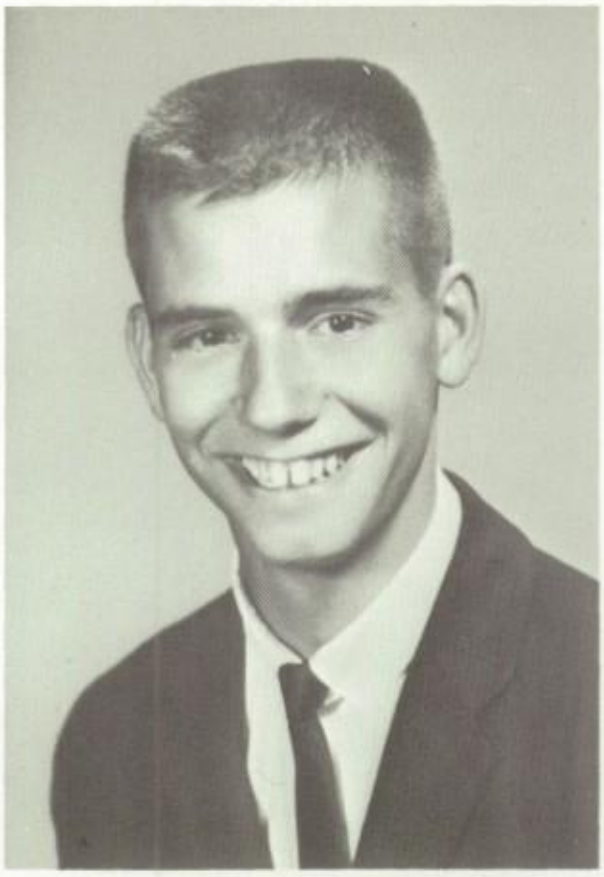
Ronnie Tucker, alias "the corpse," is the class joker with the proverbial ear-to-ear grin. As a projectionist, he is responsible for showing us some of those spectacular educational movies ... (Well, would you rather have a test?)





ALAN VANDERHOEF

Alan is envied for his million and one beautiful sweaters and ability in sports, notably in basketball and soccer. He can be as nutty as a fruitcake one minute and dead serious the next, but his indiscriminating friendliness is constant.



LINDA WALTER

With a radiant smile and cheerful disposition, Linda has won her way through two years of chorus and numerous soccer matches (a combination which takes great fortitude--believe us!) She also enjoys French and business, and can sometimes be seen adorning the student store.

RICHARD WHITFORD

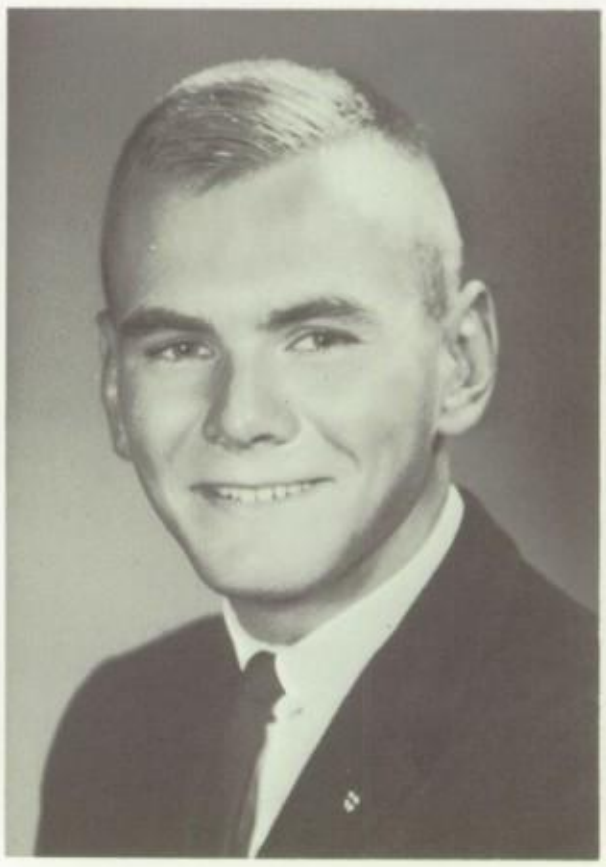
Dick's speed has earned him a starring place on the track team, and he has also helped A.A. to victory on the basketball court. An impish grin and a fantastic ability to tease the female population make this lithe, blonde athletic boy a popular one.

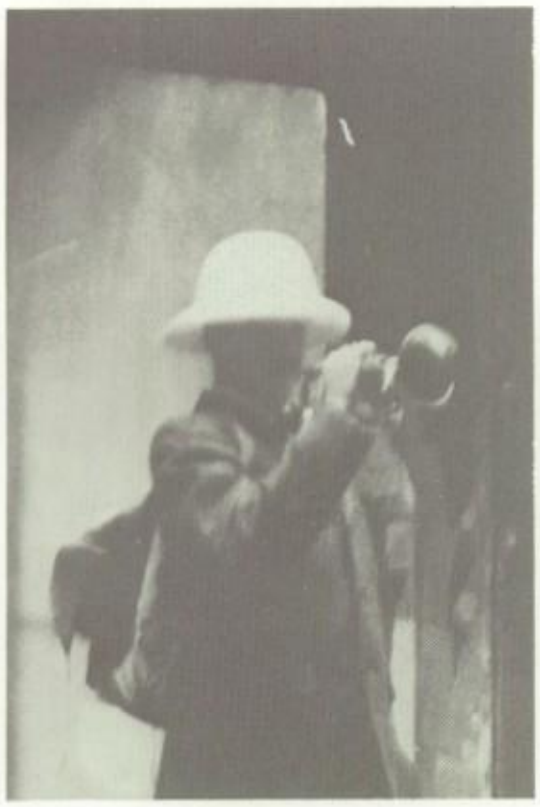
SANDRA WHITFORD

Sandy has survived the rigors of four years of F.T.A. with barely a scratch, not to mention chorus and a large dose of Mr. Phelan's philosophy. She is frequently seen at basketball games (most often with a boy and a sweater), and has been a definite asset to the girls' bowling team.

JOHN WOODRUFF

"Exceeding tall and most exceeding fair," John's good looks plus his athletic ability make him appear the Ideal American Male. His competence on the mats has made his opponents tremble at the sound of his name, and he has also contributed his athletic capacity to the track team.





ARSENIC AND OLD LACE

"No, Edmund; when Peta flicks the switch, all the lights go out...now, let's try that once more..."

"Ronnie, you're supposed to be dead. Shut up..."

For a while we thought the play would never come off; but somehow, with Mrs. Phelan's help and a lot of work, it did; and it was worth it. Of the many memorable events in our senior year, the play was one of the most exciting and worthwhile.

JUNIORS

B. Judson, Treasurer; D. North, President; W. Parry, Vice President; S. Smith, Secretary.

The juniors, having been inducted into the mysteries of eleventh year history and English, are now completely confused. They have been subjected, not without dire results, to shorter study halls ("But I haven't finished my history yet!") and chemistry labs taught in Greek. However, there's still hope, with that last step finally in reach, and then...!

The sophomores seem to hold their own in many ways, and are particularly proud of holding the championship for writer's cramp in biology. They are generally a handsome group; but in some, a peculiar walk may be detected, said to be caused by carrying heaps of books all day. (No lockers!)

FRESHMEN

Dave-
It's been fun in "study hall" - keep it up. Luck always Love ya,
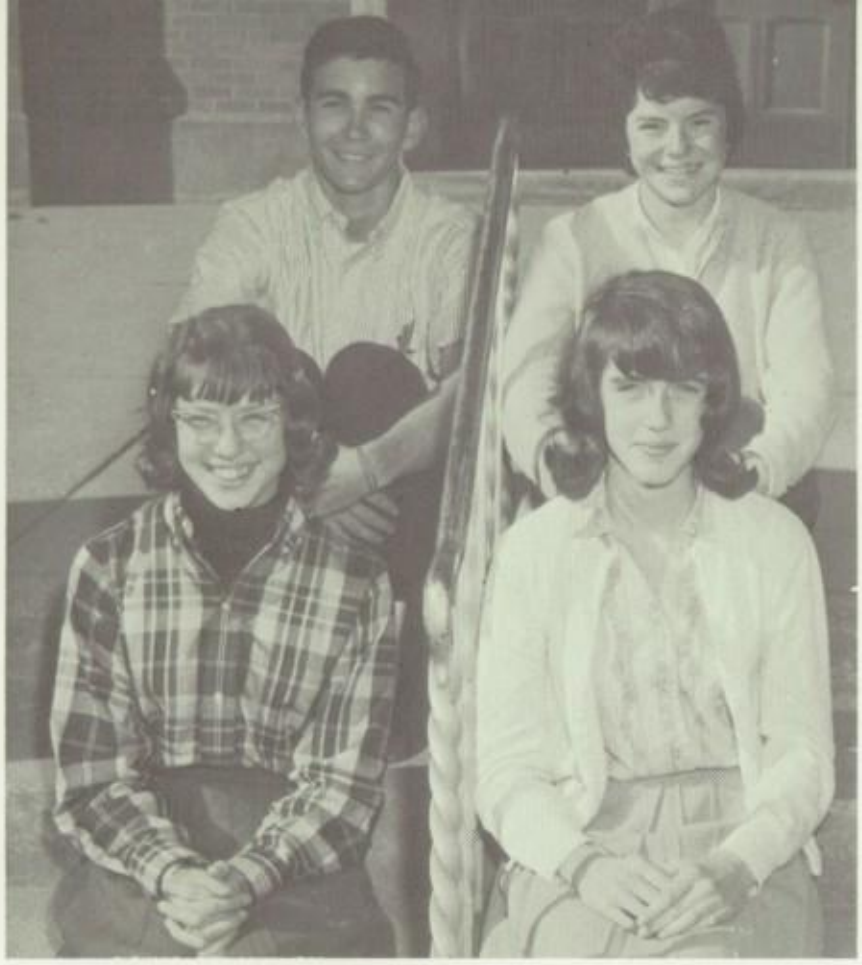
Posey



L. Gardner, Treasurer; C. Clarke, Secretary; S. Phelan, Vice President; M. Gorton, President.

The typical freshman views the world without that dark and smudgy look which haunts the rest of us. Their effervescent spirits have brightened the sports scene and have added much to our numerous clubs and projects. The freshman play also displayed much enthusiasm as well as dramatic talent.

ACTIVITIES

ALCEN STAFF AND ADVISERS

J. Mullikin, Business Editor; Mrs. Seaman, Business Adviser; C. Ordway, Advertising Editor; B. Goodwin, Asst. Advertising Editor.

J. Clicquennoi, Editor-in-Chief.

Mr. Bakeman, Adviser.

Mrs. Van Hall, Literary Adviser; D. Brown, Literary Editor; G. Smith, Sports Editor.

We've been told several times that we'd learn the meaning of deadlines in doing the Alcen, and it's the awful truth. However, if you are reading this now, things can't have turned out as disastrously as they might have; there is an Alcen, to our surprise; and that alone makes the work and worry worthwhile.

Mr. Phelan, Art Adviser; E. Phelan, Art Editor; P. Randolph, Photography Editor.

J. Davis, Circulation Editor.

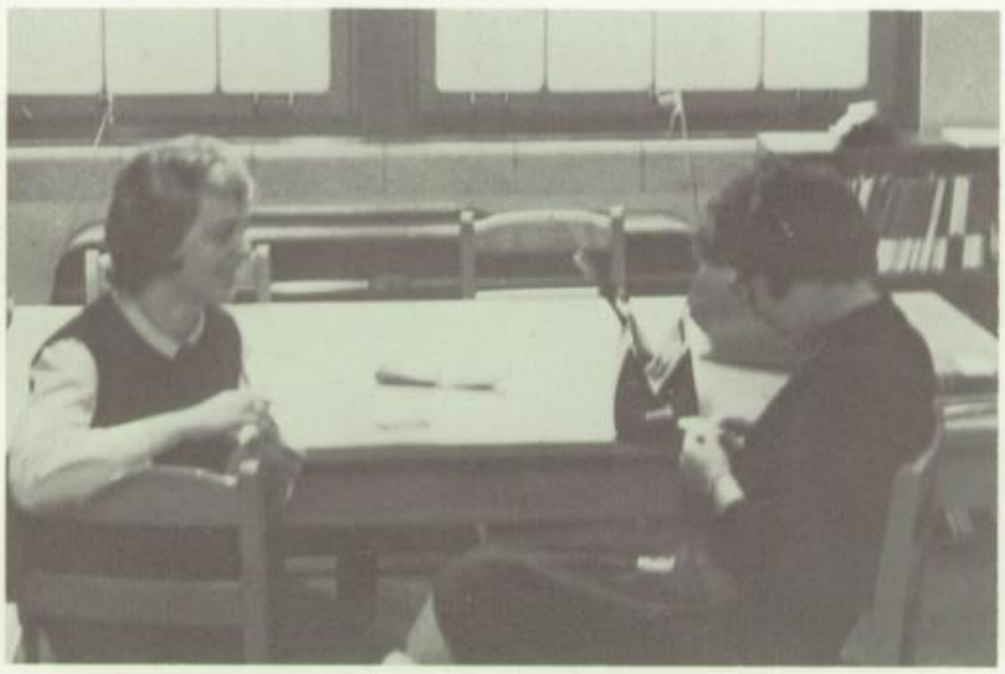
ALCEN ASSISTANTS

The Alcen assistants have two important functions. One is, of course, helping the staff to put out a yearbook; the other is learning how to do the job so they can take over next year. When this happens (chuckle), all the worry and frustration will be theirs. We leave them with a grin and this final advice: "Be happy in your work!"



SENIOR HIGH COUNCIL

Seated, around table: W. Parry, D. Davis, V. President; E. Judson, Secretary; D. Ryan, President; G. Smith, Treasurer; D. North, J. Bordeaux. Standing: D. White, S. Smith, S. Winters, K. Clark, Mr. Stillman, Adviser; L. Poulin, E. Phelan.

Elected by popular vote of the student body, the council is an example of democracy at work in Alfred-Almond. Most of the school's dances (not to mention the wild abandon of skating parties) are made possible through the efforts of this group.

Dave,
Good luck
to you in school and keep up the good humor
Dave B.

JUNIOR HIGH COUNCIL

The Junior High Council introduces students to the privileges and responsibilities of self-government. This important group instills the social graces into junior high students through its well-known "sock hops" and other social functions.

Seated, around table: S. Phelan, D. Jones, P. Stearns, [illegible], President; D. Burrington, V. President; [illegible], Treasurer; C. [illegible], Standing: J. Mills, J. Bennett, [illegible], Brutsman, Mr. DiCamillo, [illegible]

Lockwood, Co-Treasurer; A. Vanderhoef, Co-Treasurer; D. White, J. Woodruff, President.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

Many of the members of this group are famous for their salesmanship ("Why, it's only ten cents! And see, it has the whole basketball schedule on it! No? Well, how about a comb?"). Due to their persuasive energies, it seems that A-A must have more money behind its athletics than any school this side of the Hwang Ho.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

The Red Cross Council is, in respect to its service for others, perhaps one of the most worthy organizations in the school. Its biggest activity is its yearly membership drive, when contributions are collected from the students in order to help the Red Cross do its work.

Seated: C. Martin, D. Gertz, N. Cornell, V. President; B. Butts, President; B. Snyder, Jr. President; V. Reynolds, Secretary; T. Montgomery, R. Tucker. Standing: E. McGraw, B. Coletti, C. Tincher, Mrs. Deverell, Adviser; C. Gibbs, Jr. Treasurer; C. Henry, A. Parry. Absent: L. Baker, Treasurer; D. Cornelius, R. Carter, Jr. V. President: P. Palmer, Jr. Secretary.

The members of this esteemed group are chosen in solemn tapping ceremonies each year. Selected because of their merit as students and citizens, they are honored as the cream of the Alfred-Almond crop.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

INTERNATIONAL CLUB

The International Club held an historic election debate this year for an assembly. They were also responsible for the school's mock election using a real voting machine. ("Oh, no! I think I voted for both of them!")

First Row: T. Montgomery, A. Rough, D. Gertz, V. President; L. Gardner, D. Butts. Second Row: B. Butts, Secretary-Treasurer; T. Fraser, Mrs. Deverell, Adviser; E. Rulon, President; M. Wood, M. Cameron. Absent: C. Martin, K. Clark, M. Rodriquez.

Stearns, S. Jefferds. Absent: H. Horton, Treasurer.

Attic haunters all, members of the Yorker Club have struck terror into the heart of every available antique in the Southern Tier. These young historians, under Mrs. Dirlam's supervision, are learning all there is to know about New York's history and background.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club is a small but active group which trains students to become amateur radio or, to to use the native language, "ham" operators. There is even a rumor that they have their own radio station hidden somewhere in the depths of Mr. Gerace's mysterious little back room.

First Row: A. Rough, E. Burzycki, President; Mr. Gerace, Adviser; W. Sephton, D. Beckhorn, Quartermaster. Second Row: G. Clare, G. Benjamins, J. Simpson, Secretary. Absent: D. Higgins.

This organization of tomorrow's wives and mothers gives the girls preparation in the art of keeping house. A hard-working group (a Future Homemaker's work is never done!), they also hold wild initiation ceremonies each year.

FUTURE FARMERS

These boys hope to be raising the prize livestock and crops of the Allegany frontier someday. They prepare for this by exhibiting at county fairs and studying modern farm methods.

First Row: J. Emo, President; W. Dobson, R. Hadsell, Secretary; J. Sharrett, V. President; D. Ryan, N. Graham, Treasurer. Second Row: D. Olds, D. Harris, F. Shutt, J. George. Third Row: L. Cameron, M. Rhodes, K. Ninos, E. Burzycki, R. Turner, D. Soule, C. Martin, B. Goodwin, K. Clark, Mr. Gerace, Adviser. Third Row: L. Butler, G. Benjamins, J. Butler, B. Mills, R. Randolph, J. Stopper, T. Montgomery, M. Evans, D. Butts, J. Simpson, A. Rough, J. Tinklepaugh, S. Stockweather.

With Mr. Gerace as adviser, one would expect the Future Scientists to be wildly energetic and they are. They go on fascinating field trips, do lab work, and often win prizes for their Science Fair projects.

FUTURE SCIENTISTS

Dave,
to a great

I wish you all the luck in the future.

FUTURE NURSES

The most important function of F.N.A. is the long hours of work the girls (and courageous boys!) put in at the hospital: delivering mail, making beds, and ushering visitors. Another of their jobs, which they perform with never a gloating smile, is helping out at the "shot" clinics.

First Row: M. Neville, K. Stuart, B. Clancy, C. Newman, R. Makeley, J. Wheaton, J. Palmiter. Second Row: S. Winters, C. Studley, Historian; C. Martin, Mrs. Post, Adviser; D. Croston, S. Scholes. Absent: D. Bertch, N. Bertch, R. Cappadonia, G. Clare, J. Eddy, C. Flint, C. Olin.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Teaching is said to be one of the noblest professions. Particularly through actual experience in aiding teachers, the members of F.T.A. receive help and encouragement toward living up to this standard in the future.

STUDENT STORE

Prices haven't risen in the store since the counter was bigger than we were; and it is still run by those unselfish individuals who give up their precious activity periods to sell pencils and sign passes. Onward for small business!

First Row: L. Walter, S. Smith. Second Row: A. Ormbsy, D. Cornelius, V. Reynolds, D. Hitchcock, S. Curran, L. Rossman, W. Sephton.

David
I'm sorry I take such a terribly bad picture.
Well, honest people never do anyway. Best wishes to 'Weasels' Brother, & good luck in your remaining 3 yrs. you'll need it.
Love Shelley C.

PROJECTIONISTS

First Row: E. Clancy, L. McGraw, Mrs. Stillman, Adviser; D. Place, G. Chittenden. Second Row: G. Kellogg, C. Briggs, E. Burzycki, R. Rawleigh, D. White, T. Wigent, A. Neville, A. Burdick, R. Carter. Third Row: D. Beckhorn, B. Perry, J. Hurne, W. Sephton, J. Sicker, J. Kenyon, J. Woodruff, S. Phelan.

These hardy souls are taught by Mrs. Stillman to operate those machines which, when not in use, lurk in the dim corners of the back room of the library-The Movie Projectors. The projectionists probably get to see more of those lovely movies (anything from tennis to amoebas) than anyone else in the school.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

The Library Assistants undertake the horrendous task of keeping sanity and order within the walls of the library. Anyone who has ever been lost in a maze of catalogue numbers has reason to thank Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Stillman's chief helper.

C. VanHorn, D. Jones, P. Norton

Seated: E. Clancy, Mrs. Stillman, Librarian; L. Stearns, L. Baker. Standing: N. Moore, Mrs. Clark, Asst. Librarian; J. Hurne, G. Chittenden, R. Calkins.

The four H's stand for heart, hand, head, and health, for those of us who have always wondered. The Alfred-Almond chapter of this nationwide agricultural and homemaking organization is a large and active group.

The event of a fire seems quite unlikely at A-A, but hearts and hopes leap every time the old fire bell rings for a practice drill. The Fire Wardens make sure everyone gets out of the building and risk their lives in each blazing fire by being the last to leave.

MAJORETTES

This is the highstepping group of girls which adds a great deal of sparkle to the band's marches. Their fortitude in the Halloween parade was amazing; never a chatter of teeth nor a knock of knees was heard.

D. Davis, P. Ormsby, J. Davis, K. Ninos, V. Reynolds.

Mr. Sprague is to be congratulated on the success of his bands this year. At their school assembly program, the Senior Band showed its usual spirit and determination; and Mr. Gerace proved his possibilities as the future Leonard Bernstein by showing up as guest conductor.

JUNIOR BAND

The Junior Band offers formidable competition to its colleague in the Senior High. These ambitious musicians look forward to assemblies, practicing with a zeal which is very much apparent, if not inescapable.

R. Stockweather, R. Davis.

First Row: M. Wood, D. Nudd, P. Carter, N. Moore. Second Row: P. Palmiter, B. Snyder, V. President; L. Soule, Secretary; K. Pierce, K. Nudd, C. Braack. Third Row: Mr. Sprague, Director; J. BEGINNERS' BAND

The seed bed of A-A's future maestros, the elementary band has inaugurated countless Sousas and MacNamaras into its ranks. Where else could one learn the intricacies of anything from an E-flat flute to a bassoon?

First Row: L. McGraw, S. Lorow, C. Snyder, M. Ninos, D. Pierce, S. Tucker, S. Tucker. Second Row: R. Rulon, V. Higgins, R. Sutton, C. Churchill, C. Wheeler, S. Straight, N. Cameron, M. Cushing. Third Row: G. Snyder, W. Jacox, R. North, B. Palmer, J. Shaw, J. Herrick, G. Burzycki, C. Funk.

Schwartz, S. Winters.

Unfortunately, because of complications with the new school building program it was impossible to have an elementary chorus this year. However, our Junior and Senior High choruses have been very active, singing at the Spring Concert, in ensembles at community functions and in county competition.

A-A's soccer team continued its winning spirit with a fine 5-2-2 record this season. After a slow start they finished with four straight victories. Jim Mullen, a senior, led the scoring with seven goals. Dale Baker, Chris Frechette, Bart Neville, and Bob Perry are other seniors the team will have to do without next year. However, with a new field and adept players like Arthur Neville, Dan North, and John Wakefield returning, Coach McEvoy should again have a fine team to work with.

First Row: D. Reid, M. Drumm, G. Chittenden, R. Buckmaster, G. Ormsby, Second Row: E. McGraw, Manager; C. Tincher, C. Hilsdorf, R. Harwood, L. Sherman, J. Wakefield, A. Neville, D. Schwartz, L. Alfred-Almond's cross-country team didn't lose a regular season meet this year, stretching their record to an amazing 19 consecutive wins. The team had to settle for second out of 22 schools in the sectionals after winning them for the last two years. One consolation was Gary Kellogg's fine effort that won him first place in the competition.

First Row: G. Kellogg, W. Dobson, T. Benson, R. Snyder, D. Coleman. Second Row: S. Bracken, J. Buckmaster, D. Burrington, G. Smith, J. Barron, C. Wilcox, Coach Moore. Absent: T. Montgomery.

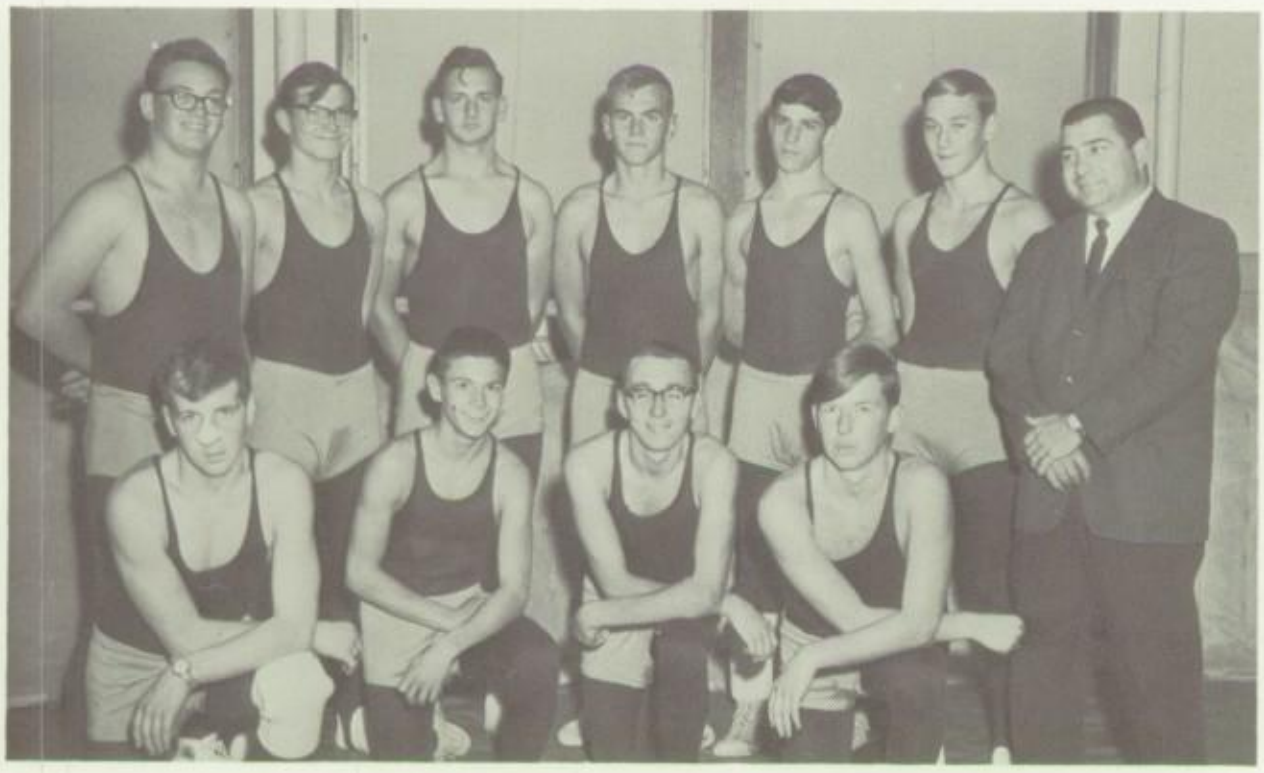
CROSS COUNTRY

Junior High cross-country furnishes valuable training to boys aspiring to join the varsity squad and gives any youth a taste of real competition before high-school.

The Junior High squad again won its sole annual meet with Portsville, an event which has never been lost by Alfred-Almond. Stuart Sharrett and Bruce Tuttle finished 1-2 and appear good prospects for the Senior High team.

First Row: R. Stockweather, M. Cornelius, D. Freeland, B. Reynolds, J. Bennett, S. Smith. Second Row: E. White, S. Sharrett, D. Stuart, D. Allen, G. North, D. Lorow, J. Funk, B. Tuttle, Coach Moore.

WRESTLING



First Row: G. Chittenden, L. Cornell, A. Young, R. VanHorn. Second Row: B. Neville, D..Burrington, J. Hurne, J. Woodruff, J. Barron, J. Woodruff, Coach McAlee. Absent: J. Emo.

A winning season seems certain for Coach McAlee's grapplers, despite the youth of the team. The Eagles have two league victories behind them and a very talented squad could carry them all the way to the county championship.

John Woodruff, a Senior, has proved himself an outstanding wrestler throughout highschool. John Barron and Carrol Wilcox along with a promising freshman, Larry Cornell, have also shown exceptional skill. Expert coaching is likely to produce many more winners from this year's team.

First Row: N. Jefferds, Manager; J. Davis, D. Harris, B. Mills, G. Clare, Manager. Second Row: L. Butler, R. Snyder, R. Hadsell, D. Beckhorn, D. Butts, C. Wilcox, Coach McAlee. Absent: L. Drumm, J. Eisenhart, J. Sicker.

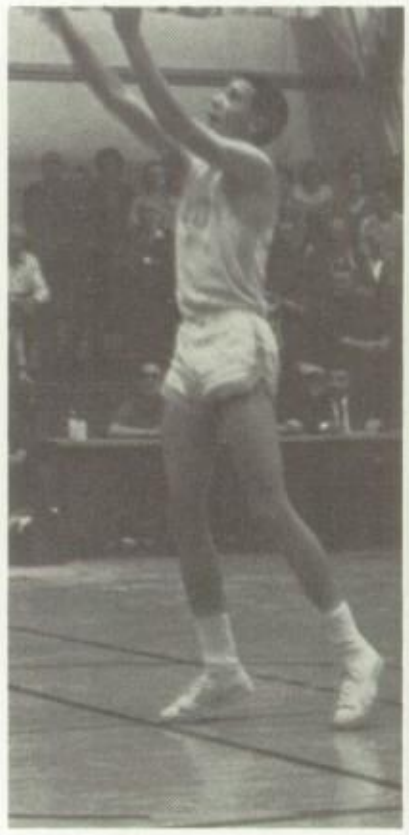
Coach Moore, P. Randolph, R. Perry, R. Whitford, A. Vanderhoef, P. Lockwood. Absent: R. Greenspan.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

With 3 straight victories behind them, the Eagle cagers are on their way to another successful (perhaps undefeated) season. Under Coach Moore the two "big boys," Roy Greenspan and Pete Randolph, are doing a great job under the baskets while Phil Lockwood and Alan Vanderhoef "chuck 'em in" from the outside. Bob Perry and Dick Whitford switch as fifth man and both can have a hot night. Dale Baker and Dave Ryan provide good speed when needed. These eight Seniors will certainly be missed next year. However, the four Juniors on this year's squad are ready and willing to take over.



Coach Moore, T. Montgomery, D. North, D. Ryan, R. Randolph, M. Evans. Absent: D. Baker.

J. V. BASKETBALL

First Row: L. Allen, W. Dobson, C. Emerson, L. Sherman, C. Tincher, A. Neville, R. Harwood, R. Buckmaster, Manager. Second Row: Coach McEvoy, J. Kenyon, Manager, G. Kellogg, D. Reid, S. Phelan, R. Cappadonia, J. Brutsman, G. Drake, A. Lobdell, S. Bracken, D. Schwartz, G. Ormsby, D. Lockwood, Manager.

Coach McEvoy is fielding a larger-than-usual J.V. squad this year to give more boys a chance to play. His five holdovers from last year - Steve Bracken, Gerry Drake, Randy Harwood, Gary Kellogg, and Allen Lobdell - along with a newcomer, Don Schwartz, seem to be shaping into a fine ballclub. The team should pull off more than a couple of upsets. We'll be looking for several of these boys on next year's varsity club.

VARSITY AND J. V. CHEERLEADERS

First Row: L. Rawleigh, R. Brownell, V. Reynolds, C. Lobdell. Second Row: J. Davis, E. Phelan, K. Ninos.

Cheerleading, in addition to being a demanding physical sport, also requires creativity, poise, and tremendous school spirit. Our cheerleaders, having won the Hammondsport trophy last year, can boast of being one of the best groups around. The four seniors on the varsity team, Rita Brownell, Joan Davis, Christine Lobdell and Betsy Phelan, have shown exceptional talent in cheering all through highschool.

First Row: N. Bertch, S. Winters. Second Row: S. Stockweather, P. Palmer, M. Benson, M. Gorton. Absent: S. Curran

First Row: L. Baker, J. Austin, S. Griffin, V. Reynolds, L. Rossman, D. Davison, P. Ormsby. Second Row: L. Stearns, E. Judson, K. Ninos, S. Smith, P. Almeter, D. Bertch, D. Edwards, M. Rhodes.

GIRLS' SPORTS

First Row: J. Benjamins, N. Bertch, R. Nye, G. Marvin, K. Curran, N. Dale, D. Thompson, N. Bloomquist. Second Row: P. Palmer, S. Stockweather, S. Rawleigh, B. Devens, A. Sick, L. Lawrence, M. Gorton, A. Mills.

First Row: C. Heers, M. Neville, M. Benson, S. Winters, S. Young, L. McGraw, M. Carnes, C. Newman. Second Row: L. Rossman, S. Smith, G. Horton, S. Curran, C. Studley, D. Morgenfeld, L. Poulin, C. Martin, B. Goodwin.

The female sports contingent at A-A is almost as active as the male. They participate in hockey, soccer, bowling, volleyball, softball, gymnastics, track, archery, basketball, and tennis.

By competing intramurally and with other schools in these sports, the girls are able to earn points toward their letters. A letter requires 40 points, and subsequently a shield and sweater can be won by continued participation.

TRACK

The A-A track team of '64 experienced a fruitful and unusually exciting season. (No one will forget that 880-relay at Dansville!) The Eagles' record, 3-4-1, was not indicative of their strength, for they lost only once in our county and placed third in the county finals. In this meet we produced three winners: Gary Kellogg in the mile (record), John Raschiatore in the shot put, and Greg Smith in the 2-mile (record). All three boys took places in the Sectionals, Kellogg winning the mile.

Talented holdovers from last year like Chris Frechette, Bob Perry, Dick Whitford, John Wakefield and others should provide Coach McEvoy with an outstanding team to go with our new track this year.

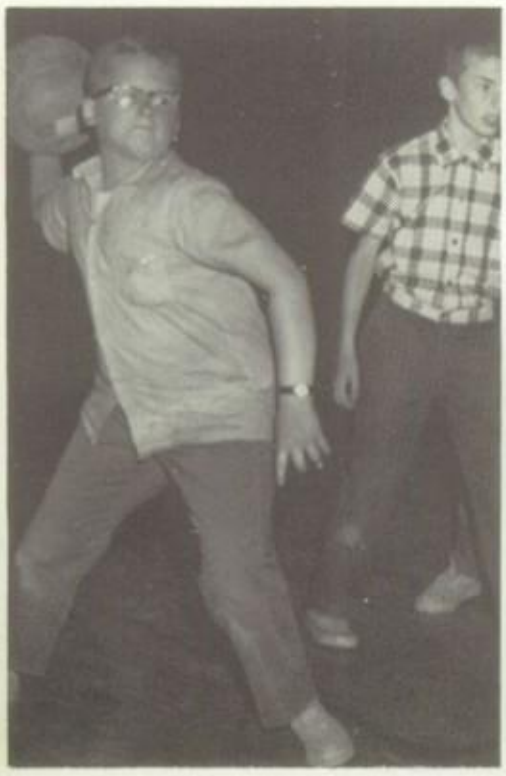
TENNIS

Partly as a replacement for the missing baseball team last spring A-A acquired a new sport - tennis. The players, an easy-going lot, didn't have courts to practice on and generally took the whole thing pretty nonchalantly. However, they staged a big surprise when both the doubles team of Alan Vanderhoef and Bill Parish, and the singles representative, Roy Greenspan, won the counties. Roy then went on to the semi-finals in Rochester.

This year A-A has three new tennis courts. Coach Moore is anticipating a large turnout for this demanding yet enjoyable sport.



David,
To a real nice guy. I've known you for 3 years. You're a crackerjack algebra class. I'm sure you'll be the best of luck in the future. Be good. Your friend Mary Ann
